CIA Acts Scored By Diefenbaker

CPYRGHT

Ottawa, Feb. 28 (AP) — John Diefenbaker, former Prime Minister of Canada and head of the Conservative party, told the House of Commons today that the United States Central Intelligence Agency has been guilty of "extraordinary and completely unjustified conduct."

He said the CIA has made secret transfers of large amounts of money to organizations outside the United States. He asked his Government to inquire in Washington "what moneys, if any, were expended by the CIA in Canada from May, 1962, to June, 1963."

He did not elaborate on the significance of this period. Diefenbaker's Conservative Government lost its majority in the general election of June 13, 1962, and was defeated in the election of April 8, 1963.
